Product description

No record cabinet should be without this little black piece. The Oehlbach Phono Weight record weight with its dimensions of 8 cm diameter and 4 cm height gives all your records the right pressure so that they lie firmly and vibration-free on the turntable and can develop their full sound undisturbed. A solid 420 gram weight packed in a black aluminum alloy makes the audible difference here. A soft support protects the labels and records at all times. Simply a well-rounded solution for better sound and more precise bass: the Oehlbach Phono Weight record weight.
